WORLD LAW
CONGRESS

República Dominicana
2025

THE ORGANIZERS

“A world ruled by law, and not by force” has been the mission of the World Jurist Association since its founding in 1963. As a non-governmental organization with special consultative status with the United Nations ECOSOC (Economic and Social Council), the WJA was created to become a free and open forum for judges, lawyers, law professors, law students and other legal professionals from around the world to cooperate in strengthening and expanding the Rule of Law and its institutions. Amongst its main activities are the organization of the biannual World Law Congress and the presentation of the World Peace & Liberty Award.

As a result of the Madrid Declaration of 2019, the World Law Foundation was created as the executive arm to organize the main activities of the World Jurist Association. The Board of Trustees and the Advisory Board of the WLF are composed of prominent jurists and professionals, including former presidents and prime ministers, presidents of high courts, lawyers, academics, and businesspeople.

THE WORLD LAW CONGRESS

The WLC is a congress of congresses where different organizations and institutions hold their own panels. The Biennial Congress is the main event of the WJA. For three days, global leaders, including heads of State, justices from supranational and national courts, government officials, policy makers, academics, lawyers, activists, and students, discuss a wide variety of current topics to which the legal community should propose solutions.

The history of the World Law Congress is as extensive as the WJA’s history. It began in 1963 in Athens, and has continued, almost uninterrupted, every two years to this day.

The WORLD LAW CONGRESS DOMINICAN REPUBLIC 2025 will be the 29th time this three-day event is being held. On the first day, the Opening Ceremony will take place at the historic Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo, the first university founded in the Americas in 1538. The second day, at the new building of Universidad del Caribe UNICARIBE, will feature more than 300 speakers and panelists from 70+ countries across the five continents, who will discuss multiple topics, from AI regulation to independence of the judiciary to challenges in corporate practice.

Finally, on the third day, during the Closing Ceremony the World Peace & Liberty Award 2025 will be presented to Sonia Sotomayor, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the USA. This award has been previously presented to Sir Winston Churchill, Nelson Mandela, René Cassin, Felipe VI King of Spain, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, the Colombian people, represented by the then President Ivan Duque, US civil rights leader Andrew Young and the European Commission, received by President Ursula von der Leyen.

Letter from Javier Cremades

President of the World Jurist Association and the World Law Foundation

On behalf of the World Jurist Association (WJA), I would like to extend a warm welcome to the delegations coming from all continents to participate in the World Law Congress Dominican Republic 2025.

For the first time, the Dominican Republic is hosting the best global conversation on the legal challenges facing humanity. A total of 300 top international panelists from more than 70 countries will analyze some of the most important challenges currently facing the rule of law in the world.

On the occasion of this Congress, the WJA presents the World Peace & Liberty Award, considered by many to be the Nobel Prize in Law, to US Supreme Court Associate Justice Sonia Sotomayor. The ceremony will also be attended by His Majesty the King of Spain, Felipe VI, and the President of the German Federal Constitutional Court Stephan Harbarth, accompanied by nearly 30 presidents of constitutional and supreme courts, presidents of the American Bar Association (ABA) and of the most important international bar associations, deans of the most important universities in the world, notaries and registrars from several continents, presidents and heads of government, businessmen, media and students from the main universities of the Dominican Republic. This award was received by Sir Winston Churchill, Nelson Mandela, Rene Cassin, principal drafter of the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights, H.M. King Felipe VI of Spain, US Supreme Court Associate Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, President of the European Commission Ursula von der Leyen; the Colombian society represented by the then President Ivan Duque, on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of its Constitution; Andrew Young, civil rights leader in the US and closest collaborator of Martin Luther King Jr, among others.

The choice of the Dominican Republic to host this international event is also a tribute to Dominican society and institutions, on the occasion of the 15th anniversary of the creation of the Constitutional Court; the 180th anniversary of the Supreme Court of Justice of the Dominican Republic, and the 515th anniversary of the First Royal Court in America, inspired by the defense of human dignity and respect for legality in the exercise of public power.

The choice of the Dominican Republic as the host country for this great event was announced by Luis Henry Molina, President of the Supreme Court of Justice of the Dominican Republic, at the United Nations headquarters in New York, during the closing ceremony of the last World Law Congress, held in 2023. The announcement was made in the presence of H.M. the King of Spain, Felipe VI, the Prime Minister of Canada Justin Trudeau, the President of Colombia Iván Duque, Ursula von der Leyen, President of the European Commission, the President of Ecuador Guillermo Lasso, and several heads of state.

On this occasion, and for the first time as well, the WJA has wanted to make room for an important participation of young people, with the registration of more than 600 young Dominicans who will attend this Congress under the theme “New Generations & Rule of Law. Shaping the Future”.

Never before has WJA so directly linked youth and universities in this global campaign for the defense of the rule of law. To make this possible, the WJA would like to express its recognition and gratitude to the Dominican society and its institutions, especially to UNICARIBE and its Chancellor José Alejandro Aybar, our main partner throughout this last year of organizing the Congress; to the Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo, the Universidad Primada de América, and to the other universities that have been actively involved in this great event. In this way, the WJA wishes to highlight the commitment that society has with the youngest members of society as an essential part of humanity's effort to strengthen the rule of law as a guarantor of the dignity of the person, in the certainty that the rule of law is the only civilized alternative to the rule of force.

With this emphasis on youth, the World Jurist Association wishes to remind us that we all have a responsibility to transmit to new generations both the virtues and the challenges facing the rule of law. History reminds us that when the rule of law fails, freedom and democracy falter, and the most basic rights to life, honor and property of citizens are threatened.

And we do so in the place where the seeds of Western legal civilization were first sown in the New World.

As a lasting tribute by the WJA to the Dominican Republic's commitment to the rule of law, democracy and fundamental freedoms, at the end of this Congress, the Malecón of the city of Santo Domingo will host an important work of art by artist Carlos Albert. This tribute also wants to honor the enduring legacy of the School of Salamanca, which transformed the conception of law, economics and politics from the intrinsic dignity of every person. Its influence was decisive for the birth of international law, human rights and the market economy. The School of Salamanca spread throughout Europe, America and Asia, and its spirit was embodied in the first universities of the American continent. From them, jurists and theologians trained in Salamanca sowed in America the ideals of natural law, justice and respect for human dignity. The Dominican Republic has witnessed, amidst the inevitable vicissitudes of history, the establishment of the rule of law and its continuity, from the first Royal Court of America to the constitutional courts of today; from the word of Francisco de Vitoria to the global legal debate of today.

This Congress always wants to remember that the rule of law is not only a form of government, but a spiritual conquest that unites free peoples and makes them responsible for a just and humane order.

Finally, I invite you to participate in the next edition of the World Law Congress 2027, which will be held in the Republic of Albania, and in which we will have the opportunity to take part in the largest global conversation on the challenges and opportunities that the Rule of Law faces, as one of the essential foundations for the development of peoples, in peace and freedom.

Letter from Eddy Olivares

Presidente del Local Committee of the World Law Congress
Minister of Labour of the Dominican Republic

Dear friends of the legal world,

As I extend my greetings, filled with joy and honored to welcome you to our land, I invite you to sow here ideas, debates, and dreams that will contribute to the construction of a more just world.

The celebration of the World Law Congress is a magnificent event that stirs not only lawyers and judges but the entire Dominican people, who feel honored to host this great gathering that brings together the global legal community.

In these times, when we have achieved significant advances in the independence of the Judiciary and the Public Prosecutor's Office, we humbly receive the privilege of hosting this grand conclave, which serves as a motivation to continue consolidating ourselves as a true Social and Democratic State governed by the Rule of Law.

In this regard, we are proud to enjoy a democracy where political alternation is a normal process — one that was further strengthened after the constitutional reform of October 27, 2024, promoted by President Luis Abinader, mainly to prevent any president from governing for more than two constitutional terms and to strengthen the independence of the Public Prosecutor's Office.

Be assured that the participants in this Congress will greatly contribute to building a legal order that is increasingly just, respectful of human dignity, a guarantor of justice for all, and a promoter of dialogue as a path for transformation.

We know that to advance, we must learn, cooperate, and share experiences. For this reason, we wish to build bridges of collaboration with all of you.

Finally, I would like to enthusiastically celebrate the space that this Congress provides for young jurists. They are, without a doubt, the force that will renew our commitment to justice and open paths we cannot yet imagine.

I express my heartfelt thanks to the World Jurist Association and the World Law Foundation for bringing their experience, their passion, and their tireless drive to build a better world.

Thank you for coming. May this be a journey of friendship, mutual learning, and lasting collaboration.

The Dominican Republic welcomes you with open arms and an open heart. Welcome!

With affection and deep respect,

Eddy Olivares

Chairman of the Local Committee of the World Law Congress
Minister of Labour of the Dominican Republic

Letter from Iván Duque Márquez

President of the International Committee World Law Congress 2025

President of the Republic of Colombia (2018–2022)

Dear friends of the international legal community,

It is an honor to welcome you to this new edition of the World Law Congress, which is being held in the Dominican Republic, a country that today stands as a regional benchmark for solid democracy, economic dynamism, institutionality, and commitment to the values of the rule of law. Its legal stability, openness to investment and institutional vocation make it an ideal place to host this high-level meeting.

From the International Committee of the Congress, we deeply celebrate that this event is taking place in a nation that has been able to build a robust democratic architecture, with strengthened institutions and a regulatory framework that supports sustainable development and legal certainty.

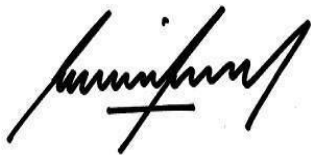

The World Law Congress has established itself as a global forum where ideas, experiences and proposals aimed at the defence of legality, institutional strengthening and respect for the Constitution and international law come together.

This edition will be a valuable opportunity to reflect on the main challenges facing the legal world today. Innovation and development will be protagonists in the discussions, not only as engines of modernization of justice systems, but as essential elements to strengthen legal certainty, optimize processes and raise institutional quality. Topics such as judicial independence, digital transformation, the consolidation of effective regulatory frameworks and international cooperation in the face of common threats such as organized crime and corruption will also be addressed.

I invite all attendees to actively participate in the sessions of the Congress, to share their knowledge and to build, from the point of view of the law, solutions that guarantee stability, transparency and institutional trust.

I thank the World Jurist Association and the World Law Foundation for their leadership, and the Dominican people for opening their doors to us to pay this just tribute.

With appreciation and commitment to the principles of the rule of law, I wish you an enriching and inspiring experience.

Letter from Carolina Mejía

Mayor of Santo Domingo

I reiterate my gratitude, as well as that of the city of Santo Domingo, for having chosen this cosmopolitan and diverse city, the First City of America, as the venue for the World Law Congress 2025, from May 4 to 6, 2025.

During this important event, Santo Domingo will host the awarding ceremony of the World Peace & Liberty Award to Sonia Sotomayor, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. This award will be presented by H.M. King Felipe VI of Spain. The laudatio will be addressed by the president of the Federal Constitutional Court of Germany, Stephan Harbarth.

This 29th biennial edition of the Congress is also celebrated as a tribute to the Dominican people for their commitment to the rule of law, democracy and fundamental freedoms, with the certainty that the rule of law is not only a form of government, but a spiritual conquest that unites free peoples and makes them responsible for a just and humane order.

Finally, I extend my most sincere welcome to the city of Santo Domingo to all the international personalities, speakers and attendees who honor us with their visit. I am sure that throughout these days you will be able to discover the richness of our people, the importance of our history and the beauty of our land, an attractive and safe destination for the development of new international initiatives, business and entrepreneurship opportunities.

You are all welcome to the First City of America.

Atentamente,

Carolina Mejía
Alcaldesa

The seal is circular with a blue border. Inside the border, the text "AYUNTAMIENTO DEL DISTRITO NACIONAL" is written in a circle. In the center is the coat of arms of Santo Domingo. Below the coat of arms, it says "Alcaldía del Distrito Nacional" and "Despacho de la Alcaldía".

Letter from Dr. José Alejandro Aybar M.

Chancellor of UNICARIBE

Dear participants of the World Law Congress 2025, guardians of the Rule of Law:

It is a great honor for me, on behalf of UNICARIBE, our students, faculty, administrative staff, and the entire nation, to extend to you the warmest welcome to the Dominican Republic. We extend special thanks to Javier Cremades, as well as to the team of the World Jurist Association and the World Law Foundation, for selecting us as local partners for the realization of this distinguished congress.

It is profoundly encouraging to witness the commitment of all of you who, from different corners of the world, promote the rule of law and the defense of human rights. We are filled with hope by your participation and by the sacrifice of those who have traveled long hours to share their vision of what our commitments and duties should be as citizens of a world aspiring to consolidate freedom and peace through the strengthening of the Rule of Law.

During these days, we will witness an event of great significance: the recognition of the exemplary life of Associate Justice Sonia Sotomayor of the Supreme Court of the United States, who will receive the World Peace and Liberty Award from the hands of His Majesty King Felipe VI of Spain.

We would like to express our special recognition and gratitude to Justice Luis Henry Molina, President of the Supreme Court of Justice of the Dominican Republic. Thanks to his vision, effort, and dedication, today our nation became the world center of law during these days of May.

We also extend our appreciation to Dr. Milton Ray Guevara and his team, who, from the local committee, successfully consolidated the celebration of this congress, which stands as a testament to the progress and unity of the Dominican people in strengthening the Rule of Law and consolidating a democracy that constantly evolves to guarantee its citizens a solid and robust legal framework.

These days of exchanging ideas will be forever recorded in our memory as witnesses to a historic gathering, where more than 300 speakers, along with 600 students and lawyers from around the world, will have the opportunity to participate in an extraordinary moment.

The Congress, under the theme "New Generations and the Rule of Law: Shaping the Future," will undoubtedly be an event to remember.

Once again, we extend our warmest welcome and wish you an enjoyable and memorable stay in the Dominican Republic. I encourage you to continue your efforts to promote the Rule of Law, always supported by the supremacy of law, to build a fairer world for all.

Let us keep working so that, through our example, we may serve as guide and inspiration for countries facing challenges in their democracy and the Rule of Law, as well as for the young people who today witness the testimony and experience of these distinguished legal veterans who so generously share their wisdom with us.

Enjoy the experience. Welcome to your home!

Carta del Dr. Pablo Ulloa

Ombudsman of the Dominican Republic

Dear participants of the World Law Congress 2025,

I am honored to welcome you most cordially to Santo Domingo, capital of the Dominican Republic, host of the World Law Congress 2025. This unprecedented meeting invites us to reflect on the pillars of the rule of law and the universal value of human rights.

Holding this great event in our nation, under the slogan “United for the Rule of Law,” represents a historic opportunity to strengthen institutional ties, share transformative experiences and renew commitments to the global challenges facing our democracies.

On May 4, 5 and 6, the city of Santo Domingo will be the scene of a multitude of dialogues in which judges, academics, jurists, human rights defenders and political leaders from different parts of the world will exchange ideas and proposals to strengthen our democratic institutions. The world will witness discussions at the highest level on constitutional justice, energy transition, cybersecurity, migration, climate justice, freedom of expression, gender equality and protection of the most vulnerable groups.

As Ombudsman of the Dominican Republic, I reaffirm our commitment to the promotion of a just legal order and the consolidation of a culture of human rights that guarantees the dignity of all people, without distinction. As I express in the book For the Common Good: Towards a Welfare State for All, “Law is not an end in itself, but the noblest instrument to humanize coexistence, protect the most vulnerable and ensure that no one is left out of the social pact.”

This Congress is being held at a crucial moment for the world and for our region. From Santo Domingo, heart of the Caribbean and natural bridge between cultures, we reaffirm a shared vision: to build fairer, more humane and resilient societies. We are encouraged by the conviction that leadership based on values, knowledge and permanent dialogue with citizens is possible. Leadership that listens, transforms and leaves its mark.

I invite you to actively participate in this celebration of law as an instrument of peace, justice and sustainable development. Your presence in the Dominican Republic is a source of pride and hope for our people, who welcome you with the hospitality that distinguishes us.

With feelings of the highest esteem,

Sincerely and faithfully,

Dr. Pablo Ulloa
Ombudsman Dominican Republic
